

Roosevelt International Baccalaureate Middle School
Availability of Electronic Resources
2009 – 2010

All students will receive a textbook for Math, Science, Literature, History, and World Languages unless they return a signed form stating they wish to use a CD or online version instead. All students may use the online version in addition to a book, but must have returned the Electronic Access form to use online access IN PLACE OF a book.

Textbook is available in that format.
